REPORT OF THE COUNCIL FOR THE YEAR ENDING 30th JUNE, 1969

THE Council has pleasure in presenting the Fifty-Eighth Annual Report of the Society of Women Musicians.

RECITALS: Among the many excellent recitals which we have enjoyed during the year, one stands out as an exceptional event in the history of the Society. This was the Gala Concert held to celebrate the resumption of our activities at 4 St. James's Square. The large audience of members and their guests was received at the head of the staircase by our President. They greatly appreciated the opportunity to meet once more in the very beautiful Great Drawing Room, familiar surroundings much loved by us all and enhanced on this evening by magnificent flower arrangements by Hope Hambourg. After the formal programme the Chairman kindly invited the artists and audience to have a glass of wine to mark the occasion. It would encourage the Council if all our concerts, which are invariably of a very high standard, were equally well supported. Certainly the best way to increase our membership is to invite friends interested in music, whether professional or amateur, to attend a recital.

CHRISTMAS PARTY: Although a series of misfortunes threatened the Christmas Party, we were, after all, enabled to spend an exceptionally happy evening. Owing to a misunderstanding about dates, the Party could not be held at the Royal College of Music, but Miss Rhoda Colvile, Headmistress of Francis Holland School, Graham Street, S.W.1, very kindly offered us the use of the School hall and dining room. As before, the catering was done most acceptably by a private firm. The programme opened with a spirited selection of works for two pianos, played by June Clark and Joan Ryall. Almost at the last moment the illness of a member of "The Kensington Gores" compelled them to cancel their engagement with us. We were extremely fortunate that Beth Boyd was able to step into the breach and with her colleagues Lyndon Van der Pump and Frances Wilson, gave us a brilliant and amusing entertainment. We finished with carols for all and Joan Kemp-Potter earned our warm thanks for all the trouble she took to collect a small choir of students, prepare an unusual programme and conduct us through it. The Chairman's announcement that we were to be permitted once more to use The Great Drawing Room at 4 St. James's Square was greeted with acclamation. Warm applause was also given to our retiring Honorary Secretary, Mrs. Marjorie Gleed, who was presented with a bouquet and a cheque as a token of our affection and our appreciation of all the hard work she had undertaken so cheerfully for sc many years.

MASTER CLASSES: Three Master Classes have been held during the year. The Society was indeed privileged to be able to enlist the services of Peter Pears, Max Rostal and Fanny Waterman. The standard of students was not uniformly high, but was less uneven than in earlier classes, due to improved methods of selection, for which we would thank Noreen Mason, who does magnificent work in the organisation of these classes. Increased support from members as listeners would be welcomed for this activity. So much can be learned by us all from such distinguished teachers.

AUDITIONS: Three auditions were held during the year and five public recitals were attended by some of the panel. Of the members who presented themselves, one ensemble, nine singers and four pianists were passed. We appreciate all the hard work done by Elizabeth Werry during her term as organiser of the auditions. We also thank Valerie Trimble, who has taken over this responsibility and all the members of the panel for giving so much time to a very important part of the Society's activities.

IVIMEY CONCERTS: We are very grateful to Kathleen Hurran for all she has accomplished in arranging five Ivimey concerts and for allowing one of them to be held in her studio. Margaret Bissett, Mary Valentine, Veronica Mansfield and the Chairman very kindly offered the use of their homes for these concerts.

OPERA BLOCK BOOKINGS: We are sorry that Dilys Orpen had to give up organising this facility for members owing to illness, but glad to learn that she is now better. Marian Attwood started taking over this work by arranging for a party of members to attend a splendid performance of "Peter Grimes" at Covent Garden on May 30th at considerably less than normal cost. Those members wishing to benefit from tickets at reduced prices are asked to send in two stamped addressed envelopes to Miss Attwood at 7 Prince Arthur Road, London, N.W.3.

A SUB-COMMITTEE has been formed to investigate the possibility of arranging for lists of artists to be supplied to music clubs in the home counties. Phyllis Norbrook has accepted co-option to the Council to join it.

CONGRATULATIONS: We wish to congratulate two of our most eminent Fellows:—

Sir Arthur Bliss on the award of the K.C.V.O., and Sir Adrian Boult on appointment as a Companion of Honour, in the New Year Honours.

Penny Scott, one of our young members, won the first prize at the Royal Overseas League Music Festival, 1969, for competitors from the United Kingdom.

DONATIONS: Each year we are grateful to record the receipt of donations in cash or kind from members. In August, 1968, Madame Cappiani most generously gave the Society £100. We have also been given the collection from a recital at Keymer Parish Church and donations from the Riddick String Orchestra, Seymour Whinyates, Barbara Bendixson and Margaret Paterson. Joan Davies has presented us with the block of the chandelier which appears on the cover of our cards each term and on the printed Annual Report and List of Members..

4 ST. JAMES'S SQUARE: In the last Report we had to announce the departure of the Arts Council of Great Britain from this gracious house. We were fortunate to be able to meet at the British Institute of Recorded Sound for our concerts whilst energetic steps were taken by the Chairman and Hon. Secretary (Mrs. Gleed at that date) to rally support for an appeal to the Minister of Public Building and Works to permit this Society and others to continue to use The Great Drawing Room. Thirteen societies wrote supporting letters and we received a great deal of practical encouragement from influential musicians, including all our Fellows and many of our members, and several Members of Parliament, notably Mr. Edward Heath, Leader of the Opposition, and Mr. Paul Channon, Shadow Minister with special responsibility for the Arts. After eight months of unceasing effort, the Chairman was invited by the Minister to take a deputation to meet him. Accordingly Miss Paterson, accompanied by Lennox Berkeley, Jennifer Vyvyan, Ursula Vaughan Williams and the Honorary Secretaries of the Wagner Society and the William Morris Society went to the Ministry on Friday, 13th December. Introduced by Mr. Paul Channon, the deputation was received by Mr. Mellish most sympathetically. He then acknowledged the merits of our case by reconsidering his previous decision. He immediately gave permission for us to use the beautiful Drawing Room as before, with our Steinway piano once more installed upon the platform.

Now that we can meet again in these premises, Barbara Bendixson and her helpers have resumed the provision of refreshments after the concerts. This is no light service to the Society: we assure those who give it that it is very much appreciated.

MEMBERSHIP: The President, Council and Press Officer have made great efforts to increase the membership during the year. The Society's thanks are offered to Lady Harewood for the trouble which she has taken personally in sending a letter to all members urging them each to bring in at least one new member. In view of rising costs, it would be advisable to double the membership and the Society's status as an incorporated company would not be invalidated by such an increase. We are trying to avoid increasing the subscription by making alterations in the Constitution in order to bring it within the provisions of the Charities Act. Details will be submitted to members if this plan matures. The Honorary Treasurer and the Finance Committee are working on this and we are most grateful to them for the meticulous care they are taking to supervise our business, especially Mr. Jaquet and Mr. Saunders.

During the year we have admitted forty-five new members and accepted fourteen resignations. We wish that more members would follow the example set by a few who have taken out Life Membership. If more would help in this way at this time the Society would be provided with ready cash at a moment when our financial resources cannot be realised without possibility of loss.

We have to report with deep regret the deaths of Diana Fletcher, Andrew Gold, Margaret Ritchie and Ellaline Wood. Although it occurred after the period covered by this Report, members would also wish us to record our sense of loss at the passing of Harry Stubbs, for so long a staunch supporter of the Society.

PUBLICITY: Publicity can be an expensive and uncertain undertaking. The Society has little money to put at risk, but Mr. Archie Newman has our interests very much at heart and has secured articles in the Press which would not have been possible without his specialist experience and contacts.

In addition to Mr. Newman's work, the Chairman has written an article about the Society for the new magazine Great Musicians. It is scheduled to appear in the number to be published on October 18th.

We owe very cordial thanks to Janet Eggleden who tackles the necessary but routine task of distributing the Society's handbills three times a year. In this connection we also take advantage of the publicity service operated by the Greater London Arts Association, which places our handbills in all the borough libraries and arts associations in Greater London at small cost to ourselves.

We have taken expert advice about the presentation of our literature—membership forms, master class application forms, etc. We hope to provide these in a more attractive format.

COMMEMORATIVE KNEELERS: Margaret Bissett has completed the kneeler in memory of one of our founders, Marion Scott, to be used in the Musicians' Chapel in the Church of the Holy Sepulchre, High Holborn, where it was dedicated on May 13th. At the same service a kneeler was also dedicated to the memory of Harriet Cohen, one of our most famous members.

HONORARY OFFICERS AND OFFICE ARRANGEMENTS: It was a great blow to the Society to lose both the services of Marjorie Gleed and the use of the office at the Royal Society of Musicians, but we will always be grateful to Mrs. Gleed for all that she did for us and to the Royal Society for allowing us to use their attractive premises for so long.

After long and fruitless searches for a new office in central London, kindly made by several Council members, it was decided that our new Honorary Secretary, Grace Barrons Richardson, should work from her home. We have, therefore, registered her address as the office of the Society. Miss Richardson herself welcomes this step and it is obviously of considerable financial advantage to the Society.

This has been an extremely difficult year for all the Honorary Officers, and the Council wishes to record its thanks to Muriel Dawson, who undertook control of the Society's finances at what, in retrospect, may well be seen as a critical time, and is giving the Council invaluable help by her wise guidance in a developing situation. Grace Barrons Richardson became Honorary Secretary when the change in premises made the handing over of duties more than ordinarily difficult. We extend to her the warmest of welcomes. She is highly experienced in musical administration and has grasped our affairs effectively in a remarkably short time. Both Mrs. Gleed and the Chairman have done everything to help her in learning the work and the Council is grateful for the ready co-operation between all the honorary officers. When two out of three officers are feeling their way in new duties the assistance of the Chairman is invaluable and it follows that, most of all, our thanks should be offered to Margaret Paterson, who has truly proved indefatigable throughout a year of additional and onerous duties, chief amongst them the organisation of the petition and deputation for the use of 4 St. James's Square. But for her concern and drive the Society might have had a very different Report to submit to members.

REPORT OF THE HONORARY TREASURER FOR THE ANNUAL GENERAL MEETING, ON 30th OCTOBER, 1969

It is my pleasure to report on the finances of the Society for the year ended 30th June, 1969.

As will be seen from the Report of the Council, this has been an exceptionally difficult year for the Society and the accounts reflect the cost of making our way through some of the difficulties, resulting in a deficit of £378.

All items of expenditure, apart from Rents, show increases. 'Rents' were relieved of any charge in the second half-year when the Society's registered address was changed to that of our new Honorary Secretary.

The threefold increase in the cost of Hire of Halls is the result of the changed circumstances at 4 St. James's Square and the cost of other venues.

The heaviest charge is Advertising and Publicity, made up of £115 2s. 8d. for General Advertising and £287 10s. 0d. for Publicity Consultant's fees. It is anticipated that this particular outlay will bring its cumulative results in the future.

On the credit side, it is to be noted that, for the first time, subscription income has exceeded £1,000—this includes three new Life Members. Donations, too, show a welcome increase of more than £100. Concert receipts, however, have dropped from £120 to £94, while costs rose from £204 to £308. The income from Master Classes was about twice that of previous year, but it fell short of the expense of the three classes.

To meet part of the year's exceptional expenses, the Bank Deposit Account was finally reduced to £160 from £340, but during the year the interest-earning balance was maintained as high as possible by keeping Current Account balances to a working minimum.

The Halifax Building Society deposit has been maintained and is accumulating interest. Other investments have not been disturbed. Of the General Fund investments, the 5% Defence Bonds and the 3% Savings Bonds are repayable in 1970. Only a small investment will then remain of £94 in 3% Savings Bonds 1965/75, which now stands at a depreciated value. It can be seen, therefore, that the liquid resources in General Fund are not very strong. If the present level of expenditure is to be maintained without further reducing the modest cash reserves, increased income must come from more new members, or a higher rate of subscription or other activities of the Society.

Compositions

Composers and performers are invited to send works suitable for future Concerts to the Hon. Secretary.

Auditions

Auditions are held three times a year for the purpose of hearing those members who wish to perform at an Ivimey Concert or a Fixture, and whose work is not already known to the Council.

Any member may ask to be heard, and should apply to Miss Valerie Trimble, 13 Drayton Gardens, S.W.10 (01-373 3638). When possible, a public performance will be heard in lieu of an audition if tickets are provided and if the concert is reasonably central.

Ivimey Concerts

It is hoped to hold six of these informal concerts in the coming year. All performing members who have had an audition within the past two years, or whose work is already known to the Council, are invited to apply to Miss Kathleen Hurran (01-937 1469). Many artists find these concerts helpful in trying out groups for the B.B.C., etc., or for Wigmore Hall recitals. Ivimey Concerts are announced at each of the Society's public concerts.

THE SOCIETY OF WOMEN MUSICIANS

(INCORPORATED)

LIST OF MEMBERS

(Members are invited to note the following innovations:—

(i) Solo pianists and accompanists have had (S) and (A) prefixed to their entry, in accordance with the procedure of the Incorporated Society of Musicians, where this is known. The Hon. Secretary would be glad to have similar information from other members in this category, for inclusion in next year's list.

(ii) A list of student members is now given.

(iii) Where no address appears, mail has been returned to the Hon. Secretary, who would be grateful for details of the current address.

(iv) In telephone numbers, where the final group of figures is prefaced with a code number, this applies to calls made from the London area. Members outside that area should check locally.
